CALDECOTT MEDAL BOOKS

In 1938, the first Caldecott Medal, donated by Frederic G. Melcher (1879-1963), was awarded to the artist of the most distinguished American picture book for children published in the United States during the preceding year. The name of Randolph Caldecott, the famous English illustrator of books for children, was chosen for the medal because his work best represented "the joyousness of picture books as well as their beauty." The horseman on the medal is taken from one of his illustrations for John Gilpin. The Caldecott Medal is now donated annually by Daniel Melcher, son of the original donor.
